Amber expands!

AMBER Werchon is growing in more ways than one.

Just weeks away from giving birth to her first child, the real estate agency owner has announced plans to relocate to Mooloolaba.

She said her growing Amber Werchon Property team needed more space to accommodate extra staff members and the AW Money arm of their business.

The company will move from the Avalon building opposite the surf club at Alexandra Headland to larger offices on Brisbane Road Mooloolaba.

AWP will take the entire first floor of the Spinnaker building, property that Ms Werchon bought several years ago.

Mr Werchon said the office fit-out and exposure to busy Brisbane Road made it a logical choice.

"Whilst we have loved operating out of Alex and enjoying the fact the beach and surf club were on our doorstep, we have outgrown our current premises and it was time for a change to accommodate further expansion," Ms Werchon said.

"We have already secured a tenant for the downstairs premises at Alex and we are seeking a tenant for the upstairs office of 93sq m."

The downstairs tenants are
