

Debra Kistler, left, of DDK Consulting, Lisa Meehan of Hotondo Homes, Amber Werchon and Luke Carter of Amber Werchon Property at the opening of the Amber Werchon Property Mooloolaba office.

PHOTO: GREG GARDNER

Troy Scott and son Kurtis at the opening.

PHOTO: ERLE LEVEY

Jared Young, left, of Amber Werchon Property with Justin Christophers and Lee Sutherland.

PHOTO: GREG GARDNER

Company celebrates

Amber Werchon and the property team relocates to Mooloolaba

IT NEVER rains on Amber's parade ... well actually it did but that didn't stop more than 100 people joining Amber Werchon to celebrate their relocation to Mooloolaba.

Amber Werchon Property launched their new premises on Thursday, December 1, with an 'open for inspection' invitation extended to all who have helped make the agency the success it is today. She took the opportunity to thank them for their loyalty and business.

Despite the heavens opening up as the event started, there was a great turnout. Guests enjoyed drinks and canapés and Amber welcomed and thanked everyone who helped make the move a reality in the desired timeframe.

"The relocation from our Alexandra Healdland premises to Mooloolaba allows for future expansion and has great exposure in a high profile position on the corner of Brisbane Road," she said. "The premises is the perfect head office and complements our successful Caloundra office owned by exceptional leaders, Luke and Katherine Carter.

"I am extremely proud we have been able to keep moving forward, both in real estate activity and my business planning in such challenging times."

Peter Brown and Rex Larkins of Amber Werchon Property.

PHOTO: ERLE LEVEY

Wayne Slager, left, and Lloyd Carey at the opening.

PHOTO: ERLE LEVEY

Glenda and Ian Smith with Bill Darby.

PHOTO: ERLE LEVEY

Guests arrive at the opening of the Amber Werchon Property Mooloolaba office.

PHOTO: GREG GARDNER